

Marty is from the class of 2005 and currently is the Assistant Principal at Calabasas High School. Next year, he will be the principal at St. Jude's Catholic School in Westlake. Marty played football, basketball and baseball at SCHS and was also a coach on the 2007 CIF Championship football team. He is going into his 13th year as a high school football coach, serving currently as the defensive coordinator at Oak Park High a School. He was a teacher for 7 years and is going to pursue his doctorate in education next school year. Marty is married to Brenda and they have four great children; Colin, Dylan, Olivia and Braxton.

